Biographical Note:

Francisca and Ascension Sepulveda were sisters. Their father, Jose Antonio Andres Sepulveda (1803-1875) was landowner to a large swath of Los Angeles County, including parts of today's Orange County. They were descendants of the prominent Spanish Mexican Sepúlveda family in the early days of Alta California in present day Southern California.

Thomas Dillingham Mott (July 30, 1829 -February 19, 1904) married Ascension Sepulveda. He was the son of John Rogers Mott and Abigail Hathaway Dillingham. His brother was Stephen Hathaway Mott.

Maria Ascension "Chonita" Jacinta Sepulveda (February 15, 1844–December 1923) was the daughter of Jose Antonio Andres Sepulveda and Maria Francisca De Paula Avila. She was the mother of Georgiana Francisca Mott, Thomas Dillingham Mott II and three other children (total number of children was eleven, but only five reached maturity.)

Henry Van Der Leck – Son of Lorenzo Leck. Married Georgiana Mott.

Raho, Padre (Father) Blas – Blas Raho, C.M. (1806-1862) In 1856, he "was named pastor of Nuestra Senora de Los Angeles. He began at once to redecorate the church. Once commentator noted that "the historic edifice, so long unchanged, was practically rebuilt. The front adobe wall, which had become damaged by rains, was taken down and reconstructed of brick: some alterations were made in the tower; and the interesting old tiled roof was replaced—to the intense regret of later and more appreciative generations—whith modern, less durable shingles." Father Raho also aided in the marriage of Thomas Dillingham Mott and Ascension Sepulveda by calling out to them, in front of the many guest at a christening party, and asking if they wished he would marry them. Padre Raho, did this knowing that Sepulveda had already turned Mott down once before. Cited from Weber, Msgr. Francis J., (2001). Encyclopedia of California's Catholic Heritage 1769-1999. Scope and Content Note:

The Sepulveda/Mott Collection consists of some 150 letters from various persons to Francisca Sepulveda de Carrillo (between 1845 and the 1890's), personal correspondence of Thomas Dillingham Mott and family (chiefly Ascension Sepulveda de Mott and Georgia Mott de Van der Leck). These letters are from such notables as Jose Antonio Carrillo, Antonio Maria de la Guerra, Ignacio Sepulveda, Alex Godey, Charles Crocker, Stephen White, Andres Pico, William Money, and other figures. There are also about 225 pieces of business papers and correspondence, including promissory notes, deeds to houses, grocery bills, contracts, statements, certificates, insurance policies, and religious items, from the 1840's and 1850's, as well as the last will and testament of Jose Sepulveda. Several of the business papers concern T.D. Mott's enterprises during the 1870's and 1880's and through the 19th century. (One letter dated 4/1/1852 refers to cattle sold to pay Hugo Reid debt.-Box 2, folder 54). A genealogical chart for descendants of Francisco Sepulveda and Ramona Serrano to about 1950.

Catalog Number	Date	Description	Object Name
F.A.13.68-747 A-B	1839	Two copies of coplas (songs or poems) which are of a religious nature, signed by Francisca Avila in 1839, telling of the agony of Christ in verse. These two copies are on one sheet of paper each (one of which is torn), with an explanation that the verses were found in the tomb of Christ, were engraved on silver by Phillip IV of Spain, will be talismanic in that no harm will come to those who write and carry them about, etc.	Manuscript
F.A.13.68-748	n.d.	Letter, one page, from Eulogia de Celis to Jose Sepulveda, concerning nine horses and a tax or tithe on them (?) by the government.	Manuscript
F.A.13.68-749	May 14, 1846	Letter from Jose Antonio Carrillo to Jose Sepulveda, whom he calls "nephew", concerning Carrillo's impending marriage to Sepulveda's aunt, Francisca Sepulveda, with reference to marriage by proxy, a dispensation because of the blood relationship between the two, a draft for Avelino (Sepulveda?) on articles in Henry Mellus' ship, the recent appearance of several warships at Monterey, May 14, 1846	Manuscript
F.A.13.68-750	June 8, 1846	Letter from Jose Antonio Carrillo to Francisca Sepulveda concerning their coming marriage, Carrillo's choice of a date for the marriage ceremony, and the troubled times. One page, folded, one blank, dated June 8, 1846, at Santa Clara	Manuscript
F.A.13.68-751	May 30, 1846	Letter from Jose Antonio Carrillo to Jose Sepulveda, dated May 30, 1846, at Santa Clara. He writes of a trip to San Francisco in connection with his military duties and the difficulty of getting away at present in order to get married. The Sepulveda family evidently prefers to wait until he can personally appear for the wedding, rather than have a proxy ceremony. Carrillo makes reference to the Mellus goods. One page, folded	Manuscript
F.A.13.68-752	June 24, 1846	One letter to Jose Antonio Carrillo from Francisca Avila de Sepulveda, dated June 24, 1846, one page, folded. From Los Angeles. She states that it is best to wait until the danger is past, that it is good that he has "consecrated his remains of his life for the good to the country," and other patriotic phrases, such as, "like a good Mexican, cooperate until a satisfactory disengagement can be obtained," etc., and then she will be glad to have him as a son-in-law	Manuscript
F.A.13.68-753	June 14, 1846	Evidently the proxy marriage came off, according to the letter by Jose Sepulveda to Jose Antonio Carrillo. At 7:00 p.m., June 13, 1846, with Fernando Sepulveda acting in place of Carrillo, the marriage was performed. Sepulveda thus notifies Carrillo that he is a married man in this letter, dated June 14, 1846. One page, from Los Angeles	Manuscript
F.A.13.68-754	September 12, 1848	Letter from Jose Antonio Carrillo to Jose Sepulveda, Los Angeles, Sept 12, 1848. Sent to Rancho San Joaquin. Carrillo speaks of a fine he has to pay and of goods he is sending. He wants a load of brea for the corridors of this orchard house. He refers to a letter from Nepomuceno Padilla, stating that the gold on the Sacramento is yielding 16 ounces per man daily. There is also reference to a wound of Mauricio's involving a "piedra de pedernal," perhaps an obsidian arrow? He also says his niece Edwiges, daughter of Carlos Carrillo, has died. One page	Manuscript
F.A.13.68-755	February 8, 1847	Letter from Teodoro Gonzalez to Francisco Rico, Monterey, Feb. 8 1847. One page. Reports that the rancho is abandoned and the livestock strayed because of the uncertain times. He cannot send money with the letter because the bearer is not known to be trustworthy	Manuscript
F.A.13.68-756	March 15, 1847	Letter from Jose Antonio Carrillo to Francisco Rico, Los Angeles, March 15, 1847. One Page. Carrillo assures Rico that Mexican troops are on their way, no reliable guess as to the number, but that they are on the Colorado River: "se cree que la que veine ya esta en el Colorado, quede pues la verdad en al ?? gar Y comete V. como gente."	Manuscript
F.A.13.68-757	June 13, 1846	A slip of paper stating simply, "Jose Antonio Carrillo married Francisca Sepulveda June 13, 1846. Santiago Thompson married Francisca S. de Carrillo June 11, 1869."	Manuscript
F.A.13.68-758	December 5, 1845	Jose Antonio Carrillo to Jose Sepulveda, San Diego, December 5, 1845, one page. Carrillo refers to a trip to Mazatlan which did not permit him to take care of his affairs: He wishes to make Francisca Sepulveda his heir, should he die on his trip. The letter, as a will, is witnessed and signed by Santiago E. Arguello, Santiago Rios, and Jose R. Arguello	Manuscript
F.A.13.68-759	May 13, 1856	Letter from "A. Robinson" (Alfred Robinson?) to Jose Sepulveda, Los Angeles, May 13, 1856. Refers to a bill for Andronico and Ignacio Sepulveda for 140 pesos up to Dec. 22, 1855. Perhaps it concerns their college stay at Harvard	Manuscript
F.A.13.68-760	August 1, 1851	Letter from Bernardo Yorba to Jose Antonio Carrillo, Rancho de San Antonio, August 1, 1851, as a wedding announcement of his son Prudencio, who is to marry Dolores Ontiveros. One page	Manuscript
F.A.13.68-761	August 1, 1851	Letter from Bernardo Yorba to Jose Sepulveda, Rancho de San Antonio, August 1, 1851. Wedding announcement of his son Prudencio to Dolores Ontiveros, One page.	Manuscript
F.A.13.68-762	August 30, 1850	Letter from Tomasa Sepulveda de Rico to Francisca Sepulveda de Carrillo, Monterey, August 30, 1850. One page. Correspondence between sisters. Reference to a portrait of Francisca with their little sister in her arms	Manuscript
F.A.13.68-763	February 24, 1852	Letter from Carlos Carrillo to Jose Antonio Carrillo, Santa Barbara, February 24, 1852, one page. Concerns the theft of horses from Carlos Carrillo and others by Ruiz and Barreras, who are to meet an American at San Gabriel, receive money from him for the stock, then run for Baja California. He asks for aid in their capture	Manuscript
