Scope and Content Note:

Articles of incorporation, arranged by incorporation number (roughly chronologically). Includes records for businesses, organizations and churches incorporated in Los Angeles County. Includes early records before Orange County became separate in March, 1889.

Businesses include land, rail, and water companies; aviation and motion picture enterprises. Social organizations, to name a few, include Circolo Operaio Italiano (Los Angeles); Downey Social & Athletic Club; First Chinese Presbyterian Church; Hadley Home for Spanish Girls (Whittier); Russian Women's Aid Society of Los Angeles; Societe Francaise d'Espargnes & de Prevoyance Mutuelle; and Turnverein Germania. Records may include dissolutions and name changes. Street addresses are not provided in the records. Incorporators' names are listed; many, but not all documents, have original signatures; often listed are the shares contributed by each member. The container list to follow below references the incorporators. As a Who's Who listing of pioneers and citybuilders, included are names such as Beaudry, Bixby, Ducommun, Hellman, Hancock, Newmark, Rowland, Stearns, Temple, and Workman.

The collection has 30,639 records, but the collection is incomplete with gaps. Records range from 1854 to 1922; 1930 to 1933; 1935 to 1938; but there are, however, some items within the gaps. There are some newer files (i.e. 1952, 1966, 1978) but these are related papers for companies incorporated in an earlier year.

Approximately an additional 40,180 records are in General Collection 1145.1 (Los Angeles Incorporation Records (Second Series)), containing the bulk years 1922 through 1939, filling gaps from the first collection.
